Prospects for This Year Fine

Probably there has been no time in years in which the prospects were better for the prosperity of Englewood and all of this part of the city than this spring. There is comparatively no one out of employment even in the winter months, and the opening of spring will witness a bigger building boom than we have enjoyed in many years. The architects boards are crowded with plans for new buildings and this means activity in all lines, as mechanics will all be earning good money and not be afraid to spend it for the necessities and even luxuries. We are years behind in our buildings in Englewood and a hundred good apartment buildings could be rented at fair rentals if we had them. Many people who have been driven by the scarcity of apartments and houses here to go elsewhere would be glad to come back if they could find apartments. Every family hotel in Hyde Park and Kenwood has its colony of Englewood people who are only waiting the opportunity of returning to this neighborhood. Most merchants have had a fairly prosperous season although the winter is just passing, and as soon as the spring opens up, which we may look for in less than two months, we will be in the midst of a boom. We sincerely hope that central Englewood especially will enjoy a growth in apartment buildings, as the day for residences in this locality has passed. Architects and contractors say that no part of the city offers better opportunities for investment in that line, and there surely will be some who will be wise enough to avail themselves of this golden opportunity.

Business Co-operation Needed in Englewood

The writer was in a 63rd st. store recently and the merchant happened to be out of the article a customer wanted; with the most cordial manner he admitted that although he usually carried that line, he was temporarily out of it, but directed him to a competitor in another block whom he thought would have it. The customer was grateful and showed his appreciation by thanking the merchant and while the merchant lost that one sale, undoubtedly he made a friend and a prospective customer for the future. We need more of this co-operation and good will between competitors. Every effort should be made to keep trade in Englewood if possible and by helping our competitors we are really helping ourselves, and in a measure we are all dependent one upon the other, and every dollar spent here means more dollars for the general business of which we may all hope for a share.

Margaret McMullen nee Mahoney passed away at her home Monday, 5938 Stewart ave., and was buried Wednesday from the late residence to St. Anne's church. Interment was made at Mount Olivet.

John S. Capper of Capper Bros., the millionaire clothiers who retired from active business this week was originally an Englewood boy, and took his first job in the city at $3 per week.

A very enjoyable surprise party was given in honor of the marriage of Roswald Fulsang and Jeanette Lindquist on Saturday evening, February 17th, at the home of the parents of the bridegroom, 5943 Lafayette ave.

Chas. B. Manahan, former jeweler at 63rd st. and Stewart ave., sends us the weekly bulletin published by the busine-smen of Pasadena, Cal., where he is now in business and we are pleased to note Mr. Manahan is as active there as he was here.

Sale of Street Car Tokens

The surface lines offered as a special inducement, and as a very slight reduction to sell tokens or tickets good for a street car fare and their convenience was at once appreciated as they are in other cities, but ever since their introduction here it has been found inconvenient to purchase them as the conductors do not sell them and the places enumerated in the advertising are often without them days at a time. If these diminutive tokens were put up in small cartons of different amounts up to a dollar it would be a matter of very little inconvenience for the conductors to sell them as is done elsewhere. Of course the companies get a straight seven cent fare when passengers cannot buy the tokens, or possibly a small commission paid to the dealers who are supposed to sell them may detract from their profits, but the convenience to the public would be more beneficial and appreciated.

Reckless Walking as Well as Driving

Among the several hundred persons killed by automobiles this year, it may be counted that about as many have been killed from their careless walking as through the careless driving of the autos. With some there seems to be a spirit of bravado and they do their best to force a driver to stop when it is physically impossible to stop a car within a few feet. Many walk across when a car is within a short distance thinking they can "make it" when the car is really upon them and cannot be stopped within ten to twenty feet. Children with their thoughtlessness are to be excused, but the man who would never think of taking a chance in crossing in front of a locomotive will try a bluff on an automobile. Both are bad propositions and often times equally fatal. There is no excuse for the reckless driver, and the wise one will know he can't get away with it, and the commonsense caution of slowing up at crossings and turns is a matter of economy for himself. All of this is just to say that while reckless drivers are very much to blame for the number of auto fatalities, the "jay walker" should also share a good part of the opprobrium.

Open Forum and Fellowship Club

On Wednesday evening, January 31st, the "Normal Park Open Forum Fellowship club" was organized at the Normal Park M. E. church, 71st st. and Union ave., twenty-eight charter members were enrolled, a constitution was adopted, and the following officers elected to serve one year: E. E. Stamp, president; R. P. DeCamp, vice president; Warren Shultz, secretary. Various committees were appointed and a good start made.

On Wednesday evening, February 14, the first regular meeting was held preceded by a dinner, and seventy-five men were present. The Rainbow Banjo quartette furnished the music and the men joined in popular songs. Harold Fax, the well known monologue artist, told some good stories. The president, E. E. Stamp, then introduced Judge Daniel E. Trude, the speaker of the evening, who described the work of the morals court and in general the efforts of Judge McKinley to stamp out vice. The revelations regarding vice in Chicago were even more alarming than those of Dr Williamson, ex-lawenforcer, who is now pastor of Normal Park M. E. church. After the address the men by rising vote passed a resolution of confidence in Chief Justice McKinley and a committee was appointed to notify him of this action.

The next meeting of what seems destined to be one of the liveliest clubs on the South side, will be held at the Normal Park M. E church on Wednesday evening, March 14. The speaker of the evening will be E. D. Bell, Ex Foreign Correspondent for Daily News.

Reading Circle Changes Date

McCheney, Mrs. G. C. Shaw, Mrs. F. W. Rowdon, Mrs. W. C. Oxnam, and Miss Frances Dodds. The families and friends of the members are invited.

Miss Dorothy Greathouse will sing. The girls of Mrs. Rowdon's and Mrs. Oxnam's classes will sell home-made candies and will give the proceeds as their contribution to the fund being raised for the children's room at the Art Institute.

Wheel-Chair Diversions

Old Brown had had a terrible morning. He could not walk, and had engaged a man to pull him about in an invalid's chair. Twice they had nearly been crushed under a tramcar, and once the invalid chair man had almost dropped his charge into a river.

They halted at the top of a very steep hill.

At first Brown welcomed the halt. But at last he began to get restless.

"Why are you stopping here?" he asked, nervously.

"It's all right, guv'nor," the attendant replied, unconcernedly. "I'm only waiting for my mate, with another old gent. We're going to 'ave a race down the 'ill."—Tit-Bits.

The Voters of the 18th Ward

The delegates of "The 18th Ward Better Council Association" met February 20th, 1923 at 1310 W. Seventy-third street, Chicago, for permanent organization and elected a permanent chairman and secretary, and endorsed a candidate for alderman, after due considerations; the qualifications, political activities (to qualify as a non-partisan candidate as the law requires), what interest, other than politics, they have had in behalf of the ward and city, business ability, honesty of purpose, and general qualifications necessary to represent the ward in the City Council.

The delegates present and seated, representing a group of voters each, counted twenty-five in number, elected the undersigned as chairman and secretary and endorsed our public spirited, ever fair to labor, and to his fellow man, his tenants, and fair to his costumers in business relations, who stands for efficient government, public ownership of transportation system, home rule for Chicago and uniform taxation, one who is not unknown to many of us, William G. Wehrwein, 1275 W. Seventy-second street, Chicago.

We recommend him to the voters of the eighteenth ward for their unbiased consideration at the polls February 27th next.

NICK BARATTO, Chairman,
6338 S. Elizabeth street.
HARRY P. JOHNSON, Secretary,
1400 W. Seventy-second Place

TO WHOM THIS MAY CONCERN:

The Better City Council Non-partisan Movement, headed by the Charley Williams organization, met at the Altgeld School on February 10th, presided over by the temporary chairman of the delegates of "The Eighteenth Ward Better City Council Association" and endorsed a candidate for alderman, previously chosen by the Charley Williams faction, apparently for a purpose, and to have it appear that this gathering represented "The Eighteenth Ward Better City Council Association," and that it endorsed their candidate for alderman. Therefore, we the undersigned delegates chosen at the various meetings throughout the ward, do hereby witness that we are not a party and did not give our consent to such an endorsement, and that we did not authorize any committee to make any recommendations.

To the Editor of the Telegram:

I live and vote fourteen miles from where my friend, W. G. Wehrwein, is a candidate for alderman, yet knowing him so well I feel that I am doing the 18th ward a service in calling the attention of those who do not know him to his standing as a man. He has lived twenty-five years in the old 32nd ward. He taught school for eight years. He first made his living as a carpenter and then he became a builder and contractor and rose to a position of influence. For his unselfish work in his district there surely should come the reward of service in behalf of others. I cannot vote for him; I wish I could. If elected the 18th ward will honor a good citizen and be honored by its representation in the council of the greatest industrial city in the world.

Plucky Englewood Girl

Miss Eileen Hoey of 6601 Yale ave. while returning from a bank with the pay roll amounting to $2,500 of her employers, the Standard Check & Menu Co., Saturday morning, was waylaid by three highwaymen who forced her from her automobile a half block from her office and demanded the money. She had divided the money before she left the bank placing $2,000 in one envelope and $500 in another and she refused to give up the money. One of the men struck her over the head with his revolver and snatched the envelope containing the $500 and made off with it. She was complimented upon saving the larger amount and for her plucky resistance of the robbers.

Friday and Saturday, February 23-24, matinee and night, the wonder actress of the screen, Norma Talmadge, with the screen's perfect lover, Eugene O'Brien, in the latest masterpiece, "The Voice from the Minaret." Adapted from Robert Hichen's famous play. Here tempetuous love and dangers play. Here a thousand figures sweep across the screen in beauty—or berserk. Vast scenes, splendors, they come, they go. But never to forget is the incomparable art with which Norma Talmadge portrays the woman who dares, loving as though from the heart of Salome, Sheba, Cleopatra! A truly wonder picture. Also the famous acrobatic comedian, Larry Semon, in his latest, "The Counter Jumper," International News. Matinee, Pearl White in "Plunder."

Tuesday and Wednesday, February 27-28, Elsie Ferguson, Paramount star, was the first actress to portray the role of Miriam in "Outcast," Hubert Henry Davies' famous play, in the Paramount screen version. It was in 1914 that Miss Ferguson starred in the play. As Miriam she is believed by many to have scored her greatest stage success, and a like claim is now being made for the picture. This ought to create special interest for those who saw "Footlights," her last big picture. The story is a powerful one, and a glance at the cast indicates that the production has been impressively done. David Powell, leading man, plays opposite the star. Mary MacLaren, the pretty blonde-haired sister of Katherine MacDonald, is another. Others are William Powell, Charles Wellesley, and William David. Chester Withey directed the production.

Thursday, March 1st, Helene Chadwick, featured in Goldwyn's superfine production of the latest Rupert Hughes photoplay, "Gimme," occupies an enviable position among the favorite leading women of the screen. Her consistently fine characterizations of both dramatic and light comedy roles in such pictures as "Dangerous Curve Ahead," "Godless Men," "Scratch My Back" and other Goldwyn productions, which have given her wide scope for her versatile talent, have proved her one of the most capable of screen actresses. Her first screen appearance was made six years ago as the heroine of a western picture; and before that she had acquired fame as an artist's model.

This Week at the Empress

The girls are young and pretty and the principals all attend to business in a masterly manner. The amateur nights on each Friday are meeting with the approval of all.

Important Musical Event for Next Monday Night

The next program in the series of organ recitals being given at the Englewood First Methodist Episcopal church, 64th st. and Stewart ave., will be given next Monday night at 8:15. The community is invited on this occasion to hear Mr. Noble Cain, M. A., Mus. B., one of the leading organists and musical instructors of Chicago. An interesting variation in the usual recital program will be a short lecture by the organist, with demonstrations of the various units of the instrument. This will prove to be a very entertaining feature of the evening, and will help the audience to a greater appreciation of the musical numbers of the recital. Mr. Cain will bring with him Master Francis Goetz, a boy soprano of great ability, who will delight his hearers with several numbers of both sacred and secular music. Admission to the recital is free, though tickets will be required. These tickets may now be had for the asking at Sandberg's jewelry store, 63rd st. and Stewart ave. It is expected that the auditorium will be filled as at previous recitals.

Rae Samuels Proving Hit at Englewood Theater

The second week of Orpheum Circuit vaudeville at the Englewood theater began Sunday afternoon, February 16, when Rae Samuels' Chicago's favorite singing comedienne, who last week was the star of the Palace Music hall program, was the headliner.

The Englewood's policy calls for a matiness daily and two performances each evening with a complete change of program, beginning each Sunday and Thursday afternoon. Such is Miss Samuel's popularity, however, that she will be the headliner for the entire week.

Others on the bill the first four days of the week will be Dainty Marie, the Venus of the air; the five Minstrel Monarchs; Senator Francis Murphy, the monologist; Jarvis & Harrison; and the Four Girton girls, novelty cyclists.

The program for the second half of the week, besides Miss Samuels, will include Dave Ferguson, the well known comedian, in a comedy sketch; Belle Donahue Montrose, a South side girl, niece of alderman Tim Hogan and John Hurley, whose comedy monologue has won her an enviable position in vaudeville; Coscia & Verdi, in a comedy musical act; and Emerson & Baldwin in an amusing farce.

The program at each performance will also include the Pathe News weekly and Aesop's Fables, or Topics of the Day.

It is only through the happy booking affiliations of the Englewood theater that it is possible to secure such notable stars and attractions as have been offered since the Englewood passed under the direction of the Orpheum Circuit, operators of the Palace Music hall, the State-Lake and Majestic theaters.

Never have such artists as Eddie Foy, Ray Samuels, Emma Carus, and others who have been booked for the Englewood appeared in any theaters where Englewood prices have prevailed.

Hamilton Park Branch Library

Although most of the books added to the library during the past few weeks have been for the children there are also many new titles among the adult fiction and non-fiction. One of the stories greatly in demand is Zane Grey's "Wanderer of the Wasteland," the one that Grey considers his best work. Lovers of mystery tales will enjoy Hanshew's absorbing "Riddle of the Spinning Wheel." Ben Hecht's "1001 Afternoons in Chicago" needs no introduction to readers of the Daily News, save that its appearance is most unusual—the cover illustrations containing many stories in themselves. D. H. Lawrence's "England, My England," is a collection of entertaining short stories. Don Marquis' "Revolt of the Oyster" is written in his customary humorous style. Upton Sinclair's "The Jungle" is now in the collection of this library for the first time. May Sinclair's "Anne Severin and the Fieldings" should be placed first in order of merit. It is an unusual novel, written as only May Sinclair could write it, and will be greatly appreciated by her readers.

Among the non-fiction are Bull's Chemistry of today; Davidson's Stories from the Russian Operas; Dodd's State Government; Drew's Mu Years on the Stage; Farrar's Bookman Anthology of Verse; Goldberg's Plays of the Italian Theater; Gras's Introduction to Economic History; Hague's Printing Occupations; Holliday's Business of Writing; Jeffer's The Call of the Mountains; Kirk's My Pilgrimage to Coue; Livingstone's Legacy of Greece; Machen's Far Off Things; Moore's New Air World; Paine's Roads of Adventure; Parkhurst's Education on the Dalton Plan; Rhode's McKinley and Roosevelt Administration; Rolt-Wheeler's The Coming of the Peoples; Schafer's Book of One-Act Plays; Simmon's From Seven to Seventy; Shackleton's Book of Washington; Stewart's Perfect Behavior; Winnington's Athletics.

An Old Resident Passes Away

Mrs. Dudley Warner, 7018 Stewart ave., a resident of Chicago since 1835, died Saturday at her home. She was 90 years old. For many years she lived with her father and mother in a homestead built on the site of the county building. In the early days of Chicago she numbered among her friends the Beaubiers, Fernando Jones, and others whose names appear in the first city directory, a copy of which was among her treasured possessions.

Mrs. Warner was present at several receptions tendered to Abraham Lincoln where she met and talked with the great emancipator. Her brother, James Lowe, was one of the body guards of Gen. Grant.

Mrs. Warner passed through the Chicago fire, her home at that time being at Madison and State sts., from where a number of her remaining possessions were carried to the beach in two trunks and floated on the lake, afterwards being recovered.

The funeral was held at 1:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon from the family residence. Mrs. Warner is survived by two sons, William and Charles, and a daughter, Eva Louise.

Unusual as it may seem to many church-goers and to those who do not attend church or Sunday school, it is nevertheless a mark of distinction for Walter J. Perry to have attended the United Presbyterian Sunday school, 65th st. and Parnell ave., 52 Sundays for 27 years without missing one single session.

This is indeed a record worthy of praise and Walter is mighty proud of it.

Walter is well known as the crippled newsboy who for many years carried a route, but of late has had a permanent newsstand at the Western Indiana station at 63rd and Wallace sts.

Another Church Movie

"The Stream of Life" attracted over 250 adults to the Normal Baptist church a couple of Sunday evenings ago, in spite of bitter cold weather. Ballots were provided on which those present might express their approval or disapproval of showing moving pictures in the church, and also of showing them on Sunday. The purpose was to get the judgment of those who had been given an opportunity to form an intelligent opinion. The result was most gratifying to those who felt that this new instrument ought to be used in advancing the Kingdom of God in this manner. The vote was almost unanimously favorable. It shows a practical unanimity of opinion among those present that this is an effective method of preaching the Gospel, and one of which we ought to take advantage, at least occasionally. Encouraged by this expression the young people have arranged to show the picture by the same author, Rev. Jas. K. Shields, "A Maker of Men," which is reputed to be even finer than "The Stream of Life." It shows the appeal of the ministry to men of the most virile manhood. The date set is Sunday evening, March 4th, as part of the regular evening service. The service will be under the auspices of our B. Y. P. U. The church is located at the corner of 70th st. and Stewart ave., and the service begins at 7:30. The sermon Sunday evening, Feb. 25th, will be based on A. S. M. Hutchinson's famous novel, "If Winter Comes?"

SULLIVAN'S SENSE AND NONSENSE

"All Slicked Up" and No Sleighs Go

The lights atwinkle all over the town,
And the streets as slippery as glass;
Where the feathery snowflakes falling down—
Yet never a sleigh to pass.

No merry chimes of the jingling bells!
No merry voices to sing and shout
O' the winter joys of the girls and boys,
When merry sleighs were flashing about!

O' the streets with ice are perfectly spread,
And sleighing was never so fine;
But autos skid and slither instead,
While the stars like tear drops shine.

O! sleighing was never finer than this,
Where, where is the horse and the sleigh,
And the merry bells we so much miss?
They are things now passed away.

Don't stretch the truth until you break our word.

Englewood Community Center

The Englewood Community center will hold its regular semi-monthly meeting Sunday afternoon, February 25th, in Moose hall, 62nd and Halsted sts.

This will be the first meeting after their third annual dance, which was given at the Cooper-Carleton hotel, February 11th. Six hundred people attended the dance which was a huge success, due to the splendid co-operation given by the members.

Novel entertainment under the management of Miss Celia Wolfson, chairman of the entertainment committee, and dancing will follow a short business session. Mr. Bernard Rosenzweig, chairman of the educational committee, has arranged for the first of the "Five Minute talks" to be given by members of the Englewood Community center on some live topic of interest. Mr. Max Cohen will deliver the first of these interesting addresses.

This will be an open meeting.

A Word in Caution

The usual sixty-day notices to apartment dwellers to come in and arrange for next year's lease are beginning to arrive and will undoubtedly give further impetus to the spring "own your home" movement, says the Chicago Post. To those whose impulse is to build, this editorial would impart a word of caution.

At least three irresponsible builders, with a large clientele, proved themselves better at promises than at deeds last year, and the only recourse left to the hopeful home owners was to pocket their losses, pay the material and labor liens which existed on their partly constructed dwellings, and carry them through to completion as best they could.

If he is wise, the 1923 home dweller will profit by their experience. He will investigate the reliability and financial responsibility of his prospective contractor. He will see that the contract for the construction of his house safeguards him in case of default. He will make sure that no substitution of second and third rate materials takes place.

If he takes these precautions, which are only reasonable on an investment involving thousands of dollars, he will probably come through with flying colors and a commuter's garden by June.

But if he be careless, there is trouble ahead. A rising market in building materials and labor costs is going to catch many an unwary builder this year, with the probability that the little tragedies of last year's home building colony will be repeated on a far greater scale.

D. of V. Celebrate Lincoln and Washington Anniversaries

On Friday evening, February 9th, a very interesting entertainment was given by Mrs. Ellsworth Tent No. 5, Martha Ammen Tent No. 29, Daughters of Veterans, and George G. Meade Camp No. 8, Sons of Veterans, in commemoration of the birthdays of Abraham Lincoln and George Washington. Miss Clara F. Hoover, past national president of the Daughters of Veterans, gave a very interesting sketch of the Inception and Growth of the National Alliance Daughters of Veterans. Comrade H. D. Fulton, past department commander of the Department of Illinois, G. A. R., recited Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, and Comrade W. H. Ambrose, of Meade Post, G. A. R., told of his memories of Lincoln. Brother Vreeland, of Camp No. 8, gave an address on Lincoln, and Brother J. M. James, of Camp No. 8, gave an interesting address on Washington and Lincoln, comparing the lives of the two greatest Americans that ever lived. Recitations by Mrs. Estelle Tupples, music of Harry H. Hornstein and Camp 8's Orchestra, completed the evening.

Englewood Woman's Club News

On Monday, Feb. 26th, the morning meeting of the Englewood Woman's club will be in charge of the Department of Music, Mrs. Charles S. Samson, chairman.

Huckel's translation of the Lohengrin legend will be read by Mrs. Elizabeth Kirkpatrick and orchestral interpretations will be played by a cellist, two violinists members of the Chicago Symphony orchestra, with a piano accompanist.

Mrs. Myrtle LeFevre will discuss current musical events.

In the afternoon there will be a lecture demonstration on the "Home Beautiful," by Mr. Lionel Robertson of the Tobey furniture house. The woman of today is realizing the importance of having artistic home environment. It is in recognition of this desire for more education along this line that our program chairman has arranged to have Mr. Robertson come before the club. He will furnish and decorate a living room for us by using rugs, draperies, wall coverings and accessories, showing effects by using furnishing at hand and not necessarily all new material. This has every promise of being an unique, unusual and instructive afternoon. Mrs. George Plummer, parliamentarian for the I. F. W. C., will give a twenty minute talk on "How to Pick a Club President."

Tour

The Sociology Department, Mrs. Frederick White, chairman, has arranged a tour to the Lighthouse for the Blind, Feb. 27th, leaving the Normal Park "L" station at 69th st. at 12:30 p. m.

American Legion Doings

The following matters were brought to the attention of the Post at the regular meeting Friday evening at the G. A. R. hall and reported on favorably. To the request that the commander appoint a committee of five to serve as members of the Boy Scout council, Southwest District, the following were appointed: Walter E. Trosach, Harry L. Brin, Daniel Gordon, Charles F. Berg and R. F. Haaker.

The Post authorized the adjutant to write the city council and board of aldermen asking that body to appropriate the money necessary to retain the playground at Fifty-seventh st. and Princeton ave. for the kiddies, which is about to be lost through the expiration of the lease. This is the only playground in the territory bounded by State, 63rd, Halsted and 55th sts. and is the recreation place for the Sherwood public and two large Catholic schools of the neighborhood.

The program at this meeting exceeded expectations, and the lunch hit the right spot for a cold night.

On request, information regarding eligibility to the Ladies' auxiliary unit of Englewood Post No. 61, American Legion, is given by the past president. Sisters, mothers, wives of ex-service men in good standing, or of men who were in good standing at time of initiation, or of service men killed in service or whose death occurred before the armistice, are eligible.

The organization is auxiliary because it subscribes to the same constitution. It, however, is not governed by the post, but is an independent organization operating under its own officers in co-operation with post activities because they are common cause. The Legion maintains the independence of its members and its auxiliary because it is thoroughly American

The Ladies' Auxiliary bunco party will be held on March 2nd, at the G. A. R. hall, 6238 Princeton Ave., at 6 o'clock.

Father's Night

Parent-Teachers' association Friday night, March 2nd, will have an evening with the children. In College auditorium of Normal college, Parker school, at 8 o'clock, will be given the following program:

Educational Films—Explained by the children.

Gymnastic Drills—Mr. Peterson's classes.

Instruction and Social Hour—Miss Badt's classes.

Music from Junior High—Miss Edward's classes.

Sherwood Park Playground

About forty men and women, parents and teachers of Sherwood school pupils, delegates of the Garfield blvd. Kiwanis, Englewood Lions and Bureau of Commerce, Englewood Woman's club and other public spirited citizens attended a meeting of the finance committee of the city council on Monday afternoon to urge the finance committee to vote the funds for the purchase of Sherwood Park at 57th st. and Princeton ave. This park was first leased to the city in 1910 through the influence of James A. Kearns, who was then alderman from the district. The lease has now expired and unless the city buys the property the park will be closed.

Mr. E. W. Adkinson, Mr. James A Kearns, Mr. Staver, and Miss Christine Bednar made speeches setting forth the needs of the children in this district in the matter of playgrounds. Attention was called to the fact that this is the only equipped playground between 44th st. on the north and 72nd st. on the south; that if it were closed the children would be thrown on the streets where their lives would be endangered by passing traffic. Mr. Kearns called attention to the fact that when the council took over the lease in 1910 they were short of funds, so leased with the understanding that they would buy the property at their first opportunity.

The aldermen one and all expressed themselves as being desirous of doing all they could to provide ample play space for the children. A motion was finally made and carried unanimously to the effect that the financial committee go on record as favoring playgrounds, that they make another effort to have the board of education take over this particular playground, and should they fail in this attempt that they buy the playground themselves and include the cost in the budget to be made early in March.

The citizens' committee went away happy. The children of the district will doubtless be even happier when they learn that the playground where they've spent so many happy hours will still be theirs. But both parents and children should thank Alderman John H. Lyle for the way in which he sponsored their cause. He told them at the mass meeting held in Sherwood school hall on Jan. 31st, that he would do all in his power to retain the Sherwood Park playground. He seems to have delivered the goods.

V. F. W. News

On Washington's birthday, Thursday, Feb. 22nd, Greater Chicago Post No. 866, V. F. W., and auxiliary entertained their many friends and public with a magnificent program.

An entertainment and dance was the program. All patriotic days are duly celebrated by both the orders, post and auxiliary. It is truly said, "Mighty oaks from little acorns grow," and the wisdom of this adage never has been more clearly demonstrated than the growth of the V. F. W. and auxiliaries. Comradeship is our slogan, derived from the front. When our hand sought the hand of a "buddy" and we spoke words of encouragement and whispered our one last message, "if we live."

In our ranks can be found men who fought overseas in more than one campaign, and the Veterans of Foreign Wars have won all the wars since 1898 at Tripoli.

This gold stripe order is a truly typical American organization of men who have worn the khaki, blue, or marine drab. Not international in scope.

The auxiliary is of especial concern to the veterans. The two are designed to work in absolute co-operation.

Headquarters for post bonus blanks are still maintained at Musser-Lorenz store, 6250 Halsted st. All applications for membership or otherwise can be mailed to G. A. R. hall, 6250 Princeton ave.

Big post vaudeville and smoker in near future.
